

PRELIMINARY WILD AND SCENIC RIVERS ELIGIBILITY DETERMINATION BLM MONTICELLO FIELD OFFICE

TABLE OF CONTENTS

- 1.0 Introduction – Wild and Scenic Rivers
  - 1.1 Wild and Scenic River Act (WSRA)
  - 1.2 History of Wild and Scenic River Process – BLM Monticello Field Office
- 2.0 Authorities and Guidelines
- 3.0 Eligibility Determination by BLM Interdisciplinary Team
  - 3.1 Reason for Consideration
  - 3.2 Inventory
    - Table 1: River(s)/Segments Inventoried and Evaluated, Drainages by River System, Monticello Field Office Area
  - 3.3 Free - Flowing
  - 3.4 Outstandingly Remarkable Values (ORVs)
  - 3.5 Region of Comparison / Level of Significance
  - 3.6 Tentative Classification
  - 3.7 Eligibility of Rivers Evaluated
    - Table 2: Preliminary Determination - Eligible Wild and Scenic River(s)/Segments and Tentative Classification, Monticello Field Office
- 4.0 Input from Local Governments, Agencies, Native American Tribes, Organizations, and the Public
- 5.0 Preliminary Determination - Eligible Wild and Scenic Rivers
  - Table 3: Preliminary Determination - Individual Eligible Wild and Scenic River(s)/Segments, Monticello Field Office
  - 5.1 Summary
  - 5.2 List of Interdisciplinary Team Members
- 6.0 Interface with Agencies with Contiguous Boundaries
  - 6.1 Manti-LaSal National Forest
    - Table 4: Eligible Wild and Scenic River/Segments, Manti-LaSal National Forest and Monticello Field Office, BLM, Contiguous Boundaries

6.2 Moab Field Office – BLM

Table 5: Eligible Wild and Scenic River Segment, Moab and Monticello Field Offices, BLM, Contiguous Boundary

6.3 National Park Service

6.3.1 Canyonlands National Park

6.3.2 Glen Canyon National Recreation Area

6.3.3 Natural Bridges National Monument

6.3.4 Howenweep National Monument

6.4 Navajo Nation Boundary on the San Juan River

7.0 Appendices

7.1 WS Table, San Juan Resource Area, Eligibility Assessment and Classification of Drainages as to Wild and Scenic Rivers Act, Monticello Field Office, April 1992

7.2 Maps

- BLM Monticello Field Office Area
- Region of Comparison: Composite Map of Sections and Outstandingly Remarkable Values (ORVs)
- Maps of Eligible River(s)/Segments
  - Colorado River
  - White Canyon
  - Indian Creek
  - Fable Valley
  - Dark Canyon
  - San Juan River
  - Grand Gulch and Slickhorn Canyon
  - Arch Canyon, Fish Creek Canyon, Owl Creek Canyon, McLeod Canyon, Mule Canyon, Lime Creek, Comb Wash

7.3 Agencies/Governments Participating in Eligibility Determination Process

7.4 Tentative Classification Table

7.5 Suitability Guidelines

8.0 References

9.0 Index